

Benton County
Office of Public Defense
In-House Training

Sept, 2016 CLE Seminar

Program Outline

All sessions will be presented at the Benton County Health Department building in one of their training classrooms

- 10:00-11:00     How to Win Friends and Influence Prosecutors: Tactics and Strategies for Effective Negotiations
Presented by Michael Vander Sys, Supervisory Staff Defender
Benton County Office of Public Defense
- 11:00-12:00     Nuts and Bolts of Fire Investigations
Presented by John Scrivner, Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator; Licensed Private Investigator
J. Scrivner Investigations, Inc
- 1:00-2:00        Perspectives from the In-Custody Arraignment Team (ie how to work together for better results for clients)
Presented by Raymond Hui, Attorney at Law; and Scott Naccarato, Attorney at Law
- 2:00-3:00        24-hour Jail Alternative: what it is and what it means for your clients
Presented by Paul Casey, Owner
A Second Chance Tri-Cities, LLC

Eligibility

This seminar is ONLY open to public defenders who are employed by, or hold a public defense contract with, the Benton & Franklin Counties Office of Public Defense

This program has been approved for 4.0 CLE credits by the WSBA.

Raymond Hui, Attorney at Law
Contract Public Defender
Immigration law practitioner

710 ½ The Parkway
Richland, WA 99325
(509) 943-0654
rhuilaw@owt.com

Raymond Hui has been in private legal practice for 17 years. He was a former Assistant City Attorney for 8 years prior to establishing his own private practice. He specializes in criminal and immigration law. He received his Bachelor's degree in Business Finance in 1986 from the University of Washington and in 1994 he graduated from Willamette University College of Law.

Mr. Hui began his criminal and immigration legal practice in 2002 while at the Tanner and Hui law firm. Mr. Hui has prosecuted and defended thousands of criminal cases. He has advised and represented hundreds of clients on immigration matters ranging from citizenship, petitions for legal permanent residency to deportation & inadmissibilities. Mr. Hui has been a guest speaker at WSU Tri-Cities and to Migrant Workers on the topic of immigration. Mr. Hui has conducted hundreds of training sessions for police departments and code enforcement officers. Mr. Hui is currently a Provisional Arraignment Defense Attorney for the City of Pasco and Benton County Office of Public Defense and advises non-citizen clients on immigration consequences of criminal conviction.

Michael Vander Sys, Supervisory Staff Defender
Benton County Office of Public Defense

7122 W Okanogan PI, Bldg A
Kennewick, WA 99336
(509) 460-4937

Michael.Vandersys@co.benton.wa.us

Michael Vander Sys is a Supervisory Staff Defender at the Benton County Office of Public Defense ("BCOPD") where he supervises the office's District Court Defense Unit. Mr. Vander Sys is also assigned to the office's Felony Defense Unit where he carries a caseload of felony matters including serious Class A felonies.

A graduate of Seattle University School of Law's Class of 2012, Mr. Vander Sys was an intern for the Washington Defender's Association before he was hired by the BCOPD. He has been at the BCOPD for almost four years and has tried dozens of cases in both District and Superior Courts.

Paul Casey, Owner
A Second Chance Tri-Cities, LLC
West Richland, WA

West Richland, WA 99353
(509) 392-1895
PCGrowingForward@gmail.com

Originally from Chicago, Paul has now been a professional speaker in 7 states for over 20 years (now giving over 45 presentations per year), and he is one of the leading authorities in leadership and personal growth. He has spoken for organizations like McDonalds, Subway, regional chambers of commerce, the Tri-City Cancer Center, and Lamb-Weston. Paul has a Master's Degree in education, and has been an educator/administrator/ Chief Operating Officer in 5 non-profit organizations.

Currently, Paul contributes daily inspirational growth messages on local radio and via social media (@growingfwd). He has inspired thousands of individuals and leaders through his seminars, his team-building off-site retreats, one-to-one self-leadership coaching, Mastermind groups, and as a key note speaker. His book The Static Cling Principle reminds us that what we allow to attach to our lives will determine our futures. Through his company, Growing Forward Services, Paul has partnered with his corporate and individual clients to transform their vision, their habits, and their lives.

Paul, his wife Laura, and 2 children Austin and Cheyenne have lived in the Tri-Cities, WA, for 20 years. For fun, he enjoys golfing, hiking, and biking—and he has a bald eagle puppet named Eli that makes children smile. He volunteers at his church and now as president of Leadership Tri-Cities. And his top 3 core values are faith, family, and growth.

John Scrivner, President
J.Scrivner Investigations, Inc.
Spokane Valley, WA

9116 E Sprague
Spokane Valley, WA 99206
(509) 928-6541
John @JSInvestigations.com

John Scrivner has had 38 years of experience investigating fires and other large losses, for the insurance industry, utility companies, the legal community, plus self insured entities and individuals. He has had 9,000 significant investigation cases, 367 hours of fire cause and origin training and has investigated over 600 fires. Based on education and experience, he holds the following certifications and designations:

- Certified Fire and Explosion Investigator, from the National Association of Fire Investigators and Eastern Kentucky University Fire School. (1999)
- Associate of Risk Management, from the Insurance Institute of America (1999)
- Registered Professional Adjuster, Society of Registered Professional Adjusters (2001)
- Licensed Private Investigator, Washington State Licensing Dept. (2,000)